

CHANNING POLLOCK
229 WEST 42ND ST.
NEW YORK CITY

January 5, 1926.

Miss C. E. Mason,
The Castle,
Tarrytown on Hudson, N. Y.

My dear Miss Mason:

There will be two presentations in January of the unprecedented Fellowship of Faiths:

"Music of Great Religions," Sunday January 10, at Hotel Roosevelt, will include Arabian, Buddhist, Chinese, Christian, Hindu, Jewish, Mohammedan and Negro devotional hymns.

"Peace and Brotherhood will be discussed by Adherents of the World's Great Faiths," Sunday January 31, at the Bronx Free Fellowship.

"Children of Many Lands" - in the costumes, songs and dances of their parents' countries - at the Ethical Culture Auditorium Saturday afternoon January 9, will give classical expressions of universal brotherhood from the lips of little children.

"Russia Day" Saturday afternoon January 16, in the Brooklyn Botanic Garden, will interpret the culture, needs and aspirations of our Russian neighbors. (This is one of a series of International Neighbors Presentations emphasizing the Fellowship of Races.)

These are some of the characteristic, practical activities by which the League of Neighbors and Union of East and West are "Realizing Peace and Brotherhood through Understanding and Neighborliness."

Will you help to bridge the dangerous gulfs of misunderstanding and ill will between races, nationalities, classes and creeds? Your generous check - payable, please, to the League of Neighbors - may be sent to me.

Sincerely yours,

CP/W

Enclosed folder gives the details.
You are cordially invited to all the activities.

File letters destroyed never

John
W
W