

CHANNING POLLOCK

229 WEST 42nd ST.
NEW YORK CITY

May 1, 1931

Miss C. E. Mason
The Castle
Tarrytown-on-Hudson
New York

Dear Miss Mason,

Many thanks for your kind letter of the 29th ult.

It was sheer accident that my appeal for Dr. Wagner reached you. I wrote a letter to go to fifty very well-to-do friends who could well afford to help in this work, and I don't know yet why one should have been sent to you. Perhaps my secretary had the same idea of your great wealth that a good many people seem to have of mine.

My best thanks for your congratulations on "The House Beautiful" and for having urged your school to go. I honestly believe that young people need to hear what I have said in this play.

I shall never forget my thrilling Sunday at your school or our pleasant luncheon afterward. I hope to see you again in the near future, and remain

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Channing Pollock". The signature is written in dark ink and is underlined with a single horizontal line.

CP:JA