New York City
Saturday - March 4th 1915

Dear Mr. Salkpelin,

Ah! you had left. I remembered that I never told you how it was I first "found" Parkchin Place - Miss Gregory lived in the famous alley so it was here that I came counting. She was in here days the managing editor of The Dial, but has since written "She shall have music" while living with her in the White Horse. Her criticism and encouragement have been an enormous help -

Yours

Sincerely
Clarence Poe

I shall always remember your visit with pleasure. You certainly are wonderful in the way you can make people interested in themselves, which I suppose is a too difficult thing to do.
