

numbers by building the most hideous Exhibition Room in the world, which cost (I hear) £ 600,000 - It is lucky that there are Guarantors.

Will you say something kind for me to Mr. Field.

and when you see Mr Longfellow, Mr Brewster, Mr Norton, Mr Holmes or Mr Lowell remember me to them.

[I have this moment got a very kind note from Mr Longfellow - Thank him, & tell him that if I do not return with another it will be merely to save him the trouble of a Reply.]

Very truly yours

B. W. Procter

Poems chiefly Lyric
by Alfred Tennyson.

(Spink & Widdowson 1830.)

Poems by Alfred Tennyson

(Moxon 1833.)

Sonnets & Fragments Poems

by Charles Tennyson

Trin. Coll.

Bridges Cambridge 1830

32 Weymouth Street
Portland Place

13 May 1862.

Story Sculpture
are excellent.

Dear Mr. Field.

I cannot get the Book, which I imagine you ask me for I have, however, (bound in one vol) the three books, set forth at the head of this letter. If you want any one of them, I will send you the Volume — but you must in that case return it to me.

^{once} I had "Poems by Two Brothers" which I believe were Poems of the Two Tennysons — printed almost 40 years ago — — but the Verses were very poor and significant of what either could do afterwards. I gave it away years ago — to some person, as a Curiosity Let me hear from you what you write — I will write more at length than I now can.

Mr. Chilton called on me a week or two since — I found him a pleasant man.

I am sorry to see that you (North & South) are still cutting each other through. — The people here (many of them) don't appear to know who is in the right.

I suppose — as in the case of all quarrels — both are in the wrong. Here we distinguish