My dear Sir.

30 Russell Square
11th Jan: 1858—

I have seen Mr. Blewitt He at once confirmed my impression - That it would be in vain to make any further application on behalf of Mrs. Dyer - He says that it is an absolute rule that admits of no exception That only one gift is ever made to a widow and therefore the gift is larger than would otherwise be made - He added that her daughter is now gone into service - and that he thought whatever her friends could raise for her should be given at the rate of 5/ a week I understood him to say, that you were of the same opinion. and that Mrs. De Morgan had kindly undertaken to distribute the weekly 5/- If this be so, I will thank you to consider me your debtor for two Sovereigns and advance these for me to Mrs. De M. and I will not fail to give them you the first time

I see you at the College or elsewhere - I take for granted that the other guards of G.D. who paid their yearly Sovereign to Miss Morgan will continue their subscription when applied to - Unfortunately these donations do not extend to their Executors - I know of two deaths

Comps to Mr Dehorgan and

To Professor Dehorgan

There is a curious article in the recent number of the National Rev: on Hastings or Harrotes -
