EDWARD BOK
INDEPENDENCE SQUARE
PHILADELPHIA

October eighth Nineteen hundred and nineteen

My dear Ernest :

Thank you, my dear chap, more than I can say for your kindly words with regard to my retirement. You have no idea of the relief of it. Of course, I shall not be idle, but my activities will be along other lines, and that will be diversion. For that is my interpretation of play.

I will run in and see you the first chance I get in New York, and with every good regard, believe me,

Very sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Edward Bok". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned below the typed name. A horizontal line is drawn under the signature, extending from the left side of the name to the right, ending in a small hook.
