Abbey Thame
28th Sept. 71.

Dear Mr Chester

I never had so much trouble with anything in my life. for so little result, as with these letters
- even these two first sheets of the second revise are all in a well now. and I find I have misdirected the paging of the third - as no blank page will be wanted: also, as you will see, I have cut fig 1. out & put a note instead - so fig 2. becomes fig 1. and the blank left there is enough for the block.

Send the third revise to Mr Harrison and to me. but not to Mr Richardson - the second revise always to be sent to me.
- My address will be used always

Brantwood. Coiston Lake (Ambleide)

Please send also these a complete series of the sheets of Mensen Pulvis. I want to refer to pages of them in the preface.

The Appendix shall have a finishing bit of large print but I must be in a good humour before I write it.

- Always yours most truly
O. Reuter
