My dear Mr. Moulton,

Your letter of the 13th has just been forwarded to me and I only send you a line to thank you for it & cordially wish you a good time during your holiday.
Let me hope that you will return a giant refreshed! — I am trying to do the same, following the wily stay & circumventing the sapient salmon. — Mrs. Moulton, I hope, is by this time quite herself again.
Kindest regards from house to house.
Yours always Felix Lemon.
