

Dear Mrs Bailey
I have not ceased to 'count the trees' since I saw you - & now at last being a breathing space in a Purthian Hotel - I take advantage of this to thank you for looking after me during my trip to Brooklyn - Remember me kindly to all your people I shall see

Your sincerely
Ernest Thompson Seton

Lyndhurst Va
6. Nov. 1903.

