Mr. E. S. Johnson
Editor of the "Hartford Journal"
Hartford
Conn

Hartford, December 5th 1843

My dear Sir,

Accept my thanks for the gift of your very interesting work on the Chinese, which comprises much important information respecting that peculiar people.
I am glad that you are pleased with the appearance of our City. - I had inquired some time since, whether the Editor of our new paper, was the same gentleman who had formerly conducted the "Poet's Magazine," in Albany.

but no one seemed able to give me information. I shall be happy to receive a call from you at our house in High-Street, - on any evening which shall suit your conven-ience, - and am yours

with respect,

L. H. Sigourney.
