

200th
S. J.

Mrs. Sigourney,
Conn.

Hartford, July 11th 1860.

Right Rev. & Dear Sir, God bless you for devoting a portion of the eloquence with which He has endowed you, to our neglected children of the West, in your oration at Providence, on the 4th of July. - Would that it had been my good fortune to have listened to you. I was thinking of you that morning, remembering it as the anniversary of your birth, not knowing that with the good wishes thus excited, "the blessing of Him who was ready to punish," also hovered around you. -

(By Rhoda Stewart)
Elizabeth Clarke

I venture to ask your acceptance of the humble copy of a book quite out of print, which I find on my shelves, whose notes contain some interesting facts about our forgotten aborigines. - God forgive our Country for her injustice to them. -

With particular regards to Mr. Clark, and your Children, also to your Mother, if with you, - believe me, very respectfully Your friend & former parishioner, L. H. Siquinny.