

Respect. 11 Oct. 1822

Sir

Mr. Falborg having informed me that you would have the goodness to forward some books to Copenhagen, and I wish to read them, I have desired Mess^{rs} Longman to consign them to your care; & take the liberty now of enclosing two notes to accompany them.

Requesting you to excuse the liberty

I remain Sir

Your obliged & obedient servant

Robert Southey.

Southey

John Chapman Esq^r.

M^r. Bantley.