

4

Southey

Reverch. 31 Aug. 1828

My dear Allan

I have wound up for you, with just planning of the front from Phillips's picture. Such is the worst of all, - & leaving untouched some other agreeable varieties. Fully & has complicated the epistle words require about another hundred lines. It goes out in an in a more incorrect state than any thing that I have committed to the press for the last five & twenty years. However it will answer your purpose: - it may be polished & filled up at leisure, for what is left unsaid may possibly be said in a poem upon the trust itself, when I see myself here in the character of a Roman Emperor.

So God bless you, & speed your volume.

Yrs very truly

R.S. d. 1843

Southey

Cl 267

By Mrs. Jebb

KESWICK 298

2 5F
1828

Mr Allan Cunningham
27 Lower Belgrave Place
Pimlico
London.

from Misses. April 1831
(15)

2d 1828

2d 1828