Sir

I have just received your Tragedy of the Druid, in a parcel from Mr. Moxon; & as it arrives so long after the date of your obituary notice, I thank you for it by the first post. The time, place & subject which you have chosen, are well suited for poetry, & I may safely promise myself much pleasure in the perusal of your play, as well knowing that whatever has pleased Mr. Coleridge cannot fail to please me.

I remain Sir

Yrs very truly

Robert Southey.
