

Clapham
Apr 15th 1865 ✓

Dear Mr Jackson,

I cannot possibly visit you before I go abroad but we must see what can be done when I return. I am truly sorry to hear that these strikes so affect you, let us hope that the men will see their folly & return to work soon. My kindest regards to sister & you all

Yours in an awful
hurry

C. H. Spurgeon