Albany, N.Y.
April 22^d 1879.

Dear Sir

I thank you much for your neat pamphlet "Epigramme".
I esteem it a poem of interest and value.

Mrs James Hall, wife of Prof.
Hall, Director of the State Museum of Natural History Albany, has published a volume of poems.
Mrs Mary C. Brooks widow of James G. Brooks published in conjunction with her husband, many years ago, also a book of poems.

and Miss Constantina E. Brooks their daughter published a volume of "Ballads and Translations"
from the press of D. Appleton & Co. city of New York. She is also a contributor to "Scribner's Monthly".

Again thanking you for your work I am

Very truly yours
Alfred B. Street.
