My dear Sir,

I have not begun to attend regularly at Lambeth yet, and so did not get your note until this morning.

I shall be in London on Monday and will meet you at Lambeth Palace at eleven A.M. I do not know the MS. you want but I dare say we can find it together. In case the day should not suit you, or the hour should be ~~too~~ early, would you be so good as to write a line to fix a later hour or propose another day.

I am sorry to give you so much trouble, but when matters get straighter I shall be able to manage better.

Yours very sincerely
William Stubbs.

A note directed to me at Lambeth will do.
