

I often went to the New Cross Institute & had a good opportunity of seeing evidence of Mr Redmayne's capability as the head of that Inst<sup>n</sup> and I think you may like to know my opinion.
His just & short views - that as Warden of the new college he would certainly be the right man in the right place & With kind regards & hearty good wishes for the new year. I am very truly yours J. W. Swan

Dear Mr. Morison

I should be very sorry to seem to unduly interfere in a matter -
with which I have only a general concern - but

I write to you at New Cross.
Kindness in finding excuse for me, I have seen in saying a word a good deal of to you as a member both when he lived of the University Senate on Tyneside & during in favour of Mr the 15 years he has J. S. Redmayne - who been Secy & virtual is a candidate for manager of the the post of Warden Goldsmith's Institute of the new College at New Cross. While I lived at Branley
