My dear Pinkie

Many thanks for cheque. I enclose receipt.

The news about 'September' is splendid. If they can sell 11,000 in a month there ought to be spontaneous sales to come; but I don't know how quickly a book dies in the States. Walpole says the reviews have been vast affairs.

I'm afraid I've made a mess of the Portuguese article by sending it to Doran for the Bookman. But I'll write to Doran asking him to show it to J.B. Any way, it's nice to hear that things move.
