Dear Lady Leighton -

I got here yesterday -

Willie Gladstone is confined to his room & see more but his own family & them only for a short time at rare intervals -

Andrew Clark however thinks well of him & has just given him to read

Had three hours ~~the~~ day - Mrs Gladstone is a little lame with rheumatism but otherwise well - I have not seen her for ten years
- She makes a very handsome old lady -

She & Mrs Drew are most affectionate in their inquiries about & refer to you.

Mrs Gladstone is in great force & his mind is as inexhaustible and exhausting as ever -

As to preaching I am going to preach to night on "they shall look on him whom they pierced" - which Mrs Gladstone will doubtless
