Dear Sir Baldwin Leighton

My Father writes that you have set yourself a difficult task altho we are told that 'Elaine' was a successful play (as played in New York) last winter.

The Idylls seem to be so ideal that King Arthur & Lancelot live ~~for me~~ in a realm apart

John Combs cult - Surely Arthur's Guinevere is more suitable for musical treatment after Wagner's fashion (but not Wagnerian in style)
