

the Master and Seniors wish him to publish as a book as soon as possible. Longman will bring it out. The subject is "Wickliffe and his Times" and it is really a remarkable production.

I remain
Yours sincerely
G O Trevelyan

Station, Scot's Gap.
Telegraph Cambo, Northumb.

137

Wallington,
Cambo,
Northumberland.

Nov 21. 1898

Dear Bishop of Durham,
It would be a great privilege and pleasure to my wife and myself if it would suit you and Mrs Westcott for us to spend the night of Wednesday December

The 7th out Bishop Auckland. We would come in the day from London, and have the evening with you, and perhaps see Durham on the way ^{home} on the 8th. Thursday evening

we must be here again.
We are going to Trinity to enjoy a pleasure which you know - that of seeing a son at the High Table of his own right. He is a sort of baby of the Establishment - the youngest there by two years. He is very busy over his dissertation, which