Sept 24. 1897

Dear Bishop of Durham,

I earnestly hope that Mrs Westcott and you will be able to accept Lady Trevelyan's invitation, and honour our house. I do not like your going out of Northumberland without having seen Macaulay's Plato, and Middleton, and Milner, and above all, his Romeo and Juliet. It would be too tantalizing to miss you.

Dear

Yours very sincerely
G. T. Keenan
