

August 7. 1861

My dear Mr. Cameron.

In the sake of your own charity I hope it has come to your ears since you wrote to me on June 30, that I was still I have been sent out of the country, in America.

I have no copyrights
 whatsoever in my own hand. I have been here since
 seen to the south of the Strand, & Chapman of Peabody and they have promised me
 to send me down my books (such as they have)

and some others also for your reading room.

Yours affectionately

Arthur Schuster
