Complete edition of Tenney's

I send you my notice of Mann's Sermons from to-day N.Y. Times - also some of my late H₂ from the Transcript referring to your substance there.

Yours truly & obliged

A. G. Tuckerman

J. R. Gooding.

15 West 10th.

New York. March 30. 1864.

Dear Sir, I do not know whether I thanked you for your prompt reply to my inquiry some weeks ago - or not; if so, I improve the opportunity now to renew my acknowledgements.

Unfortunately I have mistaken the name of the Corresponding Clerk of the "Atlantic Monthly" - I must therefore trouble you to attend to a little matter for me in such quarters, at

Your own convenience. The case is this. Of the four accepted articles of mine in the hands of the Editor-three are on subjects as well adapted to our time as another I do not therefore, lose their interest by delay; but the remaining article was written - partly by request, at the time of the Tuscan Revolution of 1859 & is entitled "Tuscany". Many things have happened since since which would be incorporated in the paper; it is not probable that this wanted at all. At all events, if I could obtain it, without giving too much trouble, I should like to revise secularist - whatever be its future disposition.

Will you obtain approval from Miss for me at your convenience?

The next time you send me any books, please include in the package the new &
