Dear Sir,

I am requested by Messrs Hatchard, my publishers, to ask your cooperation in an illustrated edition (now preparing) of my 'Proverbia Philosophy.' Mr. Lutter, at Hatchard's 107. Piccadilly, is the deputy for all business arrangements; & I beg to refer you to him for the proper

Subjects & places in the book which it is proposed that you should illustrate, if it please you.

Perhaps you will call & see Mr. Latta, the first time you may be in Piccadilly: or, if you prefer it, he will wait upon you at any time & place you may appoint by note.

I am yours very faithfully
Martin J. Tupper
