

Albury, Guildford Jan. 31. 1862

Dear Mr. Virtue,

As I want the Sonnet book expressly as ordered, please get it done for me at 7/4 extra: i.e. leave out the book lists, & as well before the title page as after the end of the book, place as much cream-laid writing paper as the binding will accommodate, so that it opens & shuts properly.

The paper copies of the Tales are not half so good looking as the cloth ones, - but it cannot be helped. / I'll call it ready some early day.

Yours
W. G. Napper

Oh dear to take care that the sonnet copy is quite correct. I have before known a sheet misplaced.
