

Rudown Mass
June 20. 1871.

Dear Mr. Algood:

It would be no objection to me, to print the story in "Bray Saturday" for fifty dollars.
Will you return it, that I may put it to another use?

I have had no personal connection with the Atlantic, under Mr. Holt's supervision, that I shall be sorry to drop it. But you will see that unless I can deal directly with you, I must do so. It would be hardly possible I think, even if it were desirable for me to adjust my

Contributions to the tests of the present editor.

Lucy

Very truly yours
E. P. Phelps.

On the whole, I will call for the MSS. Monday next.
Or if I do not, send it, please, on Tuesday, to Amisquamis Press.
