

to Blackwood's Magazine, of ~~high~~ papers of a high & pave character.

Mr Trevor is very popular at York - but a man of his high pretensions, & superior capacity for usefulness, is quite thrown away there.

- Excuse the liberty I am taking; & believe me, my dear Sir, very faithfully yours

My dear Sir,

I hear that you are one, and a very influential, member of the Court of Assistants of the Grocers' Company: with whom rests the appointment of a successor to my poor friend Dr Croly, in the Rev<sup>d</sup> George Trevor, Canon of York, I sincerely believe J. B. Heath Esq<sup>r</sup> Sardinian Consul

You would find a successor, every way qualified for so important a post. I have, as a Member of the Inner Temple, frequently nominated James Trevor to preach in the afternoon, at the Temple Church; and to that large & critical congregation he has given the very highest satisfaction. On one occasion, the Lord Chancellor, who sat just by me, said, "Warrin-that is a great sermon - a very great sermon." And I was of the same opinion.

Mr Trevor's manner is also excellent - dignified & in-ference; he is a man of very superior intellect, and a very successful contributor
