My dear Sir,

I am requested by Mr. Ingram to write divers verses, apropos of 12 French cuts, by Fournier, illustrations of the months. Furthermore, I am informed that all communications as to the time when wanted be so as to be made to you. Thereat I am rejoiced, yea, verily, I am pleased. I have the cuts, and am inventing verses. They are, it seems, for the Almanac. How — how long

J. Hoff Esq.

pace have I - in fact on which day should they, and on which day must they, be done? I am punctuality, but I like to know my tether.

I hope I shall 27pt - boxes reach you so that he should be your address.

Ever yours faithfully
Shirley Brooks.
