3. Watuloo Place, London.

17 July 1863.

Dear Sir

I have seen Dr. Hefsey, and I think you will hear from him in a day or two.

I hope I am not wrong in taking it for granted that we shall have your help in the Scheme, if it can be carried out — provided,
of course, that the arrangements we may hereafter propose meet with your approval.

I remain, dear Sir
Yours faithful Servant

John Rivington
