Dear Dana

The Tribune is famous for things apt, & it strikes me that there is a certain aptness of this hymn of mine to the leading charity now afoot.
Could you copy it (with this introduction or something like it) in the Tribune?

When are you coming to get a-straddle of our plank again? It is very loosely here & I wish you would come & bring Mrs Dana to see us. You know how numerous our benches and chairs are. We can always find welcome & pillow you.

Yours most truly

M. Phillips
