

Sturrow

April 20. 1837

Dear Sir, Some little time ago I remember to have heard from my Cousin Dora Woodworth that you were disposed to take under your charge a pupil or two to prepare for the University. Under this impression I have mentioned your name to the parent of one of our Sturrow boys who wishes to place his Son in some clergyman's family, for instruction before he goes to Oxford. The youth is very quiet and well mannered, and, I believe, very well principled.

If you are not disinclined for such an engagement, perhaps you would let me have a line on the subject, at your earliest convenience.

Dora Woodworth

mine.

Give my best remembrance to Mrs. Walter: She is no doubt aware that Dove Wordsworth is now in town, or will be in a day or two — at Mr. Marshall's in Grosvenor Street.

Believe me

dear Sir

very faithfully yours

Christ Wordsworth
