Wardour's Autograph

To Edward

Wardour

My dear Mr Mayo, I am truly glad that your health is improved, so is my own though I have not yet quite recovered my ~~usual~~ usual strength Be so good as to give to the accompanying letter, such answer as you think proper be whatever you determine upon, and I am sure he approved by me - I have referred the books to you, you will therefore probably hear from her.

My son John

has been with us since Monday, he is gone to his living of Plumstead this morning. He is in good health - His wife is expected about the end of the month.

Believe me dear Mr
Mason faithfully yours
Wentworth
I have been a little in debt to go. I Mr Robinson and mean to write to him shortly. Thanks for your news of Mr
Mrs Queller -
