My dear Friend,

This letter has been for a long time sent to London, and returned to me at this place. I have just a moment to show you my beautiful handwritten of to add my thanks to your words on the few your kind present.

Indistinct - See how lately had a high gratification in the sight of our old friend J. Paul on his return from Edinburgh. - I had ~~one~~ took him on Long walk among our hills which he was greatly delighted - I show the rocky wildness of Langbray, Fell and Langdale, as they have notes of the craggy is lower set. we returned by Gosbar. Just heartily he could have stayed a week with us - he have had an enchanting scene and return. The leaves scene - Long with us
