My dear Sir

Perhaps you may not bear in mind that several years ago a wish was expressed by me to have 3 Plastercasts of my bust sent to near Relatives of mine; 2 of them Nephews who are fellows of Trinity Col: Cambridge, & reside <sup>there;</sup> & the third for my Daughter in Law who lives at Shrewsbury, near Whitehaven Cumberland. You were so kind as to say, that, out of consideration for whom they were intended, the expense sh<sup>d</sup>. be made as easy to me as possible.

One of my nephews is now in my house, & reminds me so urgently of that promise that I feel obliged to fulfil it - I therefore do not scruple to recall that conversation to your recollection - not doubting but it will be as agreeable to yourself as to me to have my wishes so fulfilled.

Mr. Mason, from whom I heard yesterday tells me that you were gratified by My commendation of your Ode of Elvira - it was read to me when I was unable to make use of my own eyes in that way. The whole audience of my family were as much pleased as myself - & indeed I can sincerely say that the Poem is full of spirit & poetic movements. We have also read the Vol. with pleasure, of your Lives of the Poets - containing that of my lamented friend Sir J. Beaumont.

I wish I had seen the M. S. before the book was printed, as I could have corrected some errors in matter of fact, & supplied some deficiencies - If this life should be re-printed shortly, I will with pleasure do this for you. I have also a copy of verses inspired by his memory that is not too long, for I think they amount to between 50 & 60 lines, <sup>which</sup> I would place at your disposal for the same purpose.
I was gratified by learning from his handsome ed.<sup>r</sup> of Brownson's
