

Dear Mr Mayon

Through the hands of our common friend Mr Robinson I had the pleasure of receiving your very acceptable Present, the Volume of your Poems, which is got up in a manner ^{that} does credit to the Publisher. We arrived

W. B. Mayon

here late on Saturday evening after an absence of six weeks among our relatives and friends in Heresfordshire. A mournful return it is to this place but upon that sorrow I must not dwell. May God give us strength to support our grievance and irreparable loss with resignation to his will. It is not long that persons in their 80th year can have to bear

these trials -

With every good wish I remain dear Mrs Thayer faithfully
yours

Wm Woodworth
