

Toronto
22nd Feb. 1887.

My dear Mrs Howland

My time is so fully occupied, that, much as I should like to give lessons in Logic to a class of ladies, I cannot undertake the duty.

I feel much gratified with the terms in which you refer to the lectures which

It was my privilege to deliver to the ladies of Tarent some years ago.

I am

Yours sincerely
Joseph Paxton Young

W. Howland
