

WILLOX, Sir John Archibald, Kt. ;
cr. 1897 ; M.P. (C.) for Everton Division Liverpool, 1892-1900, and since 1900 ; b. Edinburgh, 1842 ; s. of John Willox, author and journalist ;
m. 1888, Sara Davies, widow of Thomas Cope, J.P. Educ. : Edinburgh and Liverpool Colleges.
Entered office of Liverpool Courier as a youth ;
was successively reporter, sub-editor, and editor,
and now principal proprietor ; takes an active part in all matters connected with journalism ;
been concerned in affairs of Press Association, Institute of Journalists, Newspaper Society, etc. ; also largely interested in tobacco trade as manufacturer in Liverpool and London. Pub- lications : numerous lectures, addresses, etc.
Recreations : special interest in athletics and all kinds of out-door games. Address : Huyton, Lancashire ; 9 Abercromby Square, Liverpool.
Clubs : Carlton, Constitutional Savage. 68.351.5

QUEEN ANNE'S MANSIONS, WESTMINSTER.

Feby 28. 98

My Dear Sir/

I am much indebted to the committee of the Sheffield Press Club for the honour of an invitation to dinner on the 12th of March. I should have been glad to accept the invitation, in order to meet so many brethren of the Press and to do honour to your distinguished guest. But unfortunately I have made another engagement ^{for} ~~for~~ that date, and

For Geo Archer Miller

1842 -

Archer's Ed. H. P. 1842

and therefore precluded from enjoying the hospitality of the club. - Yours truly

Geo. A. Willcox

W.R. M. Howaites