Sir

I have to return You my thanks for Your information respecting the Halffence of Edw^d 1st struck at Northwick I am also obliged by Your suggestion as to the printer for my "Ollaloduda", which is in the press, by Nichols & Low. I think drew all the Coins I they have been engraved under his eye, which in my little Prochure is the main point.

I Smith has lately seen about 120 Pennies of Alfred the all of the same type, in which are three of Exeter that have not. They were dug up together, in Ireland. I am doubt-ful whether the owner will lend them. If he does, it may cost me another Plate.

Believe me to remain, Sir,

Yours truly,

Robt Smith.
