

MASTER'S HOUSE,
TEMPLE. E. C.

May 24 - 1898.

My dear Howell.

My best thanks for your kind note. I shall hope to be with you on Friday of next week
in good time, at least for dinner.

I hardly know whether you prefer to suspect
me to be his guest from Saturday till Monday, or only that I shall dine with him on the Saturday,
to meet some friends,
and again dine with

WABERS' HOUSE,
TRIMBLE, B. C.

him in Hall on the Sunday. I have not kept his letter, but my impression is that ^{his} invitation extended ^{also} to these two meals. ~~Was~~ of course I should be most glad if ~~my~~ this interpretation is the true one! Can you find out? I am so delighted to hear that your father &
mother will be up at the same time.

Ever your affec-
tioned friend,
