

May 27, 1870

Dear Miss Hillard,

I make haste to send

the enclosed - hoping you may have fixed on one of the days mentioned by

B. J.

Yours truly,
Arthur Browning.

The Grange: Northend
Thursday.

[May 26, 1870]

Dear Browning.

I hope you have not fixed to come tomorrow, for I find now that I ought to have accepted that day, when I wrote. — Saturday, Sunday & Tuesday I am certain to be in. Ever yours truly Wm. Jones.

Miss Hillard,

30 Harley Street,

Camden Square W.

Ms. 9.
