

Admit to have to do falling off the House of Commons, Friday, May 13.

W. Wainwright.

Private

Duchy of Lancaster,

Oct. 15, 1877.

Sir,

I would have afforded me my great pleasure if I had been able to appoint a Member to the Office of Judge of the Salpeter Court of Sherid, Especially considering the kind interest which you are pleased to express in his behalf. The office, however, was filled up by the appointment of another gentleman, some days before I received your letter.

I have the honor to be,
Sir, yours very faithfully,
W. H. Davis,
Sir James Watt,
Mayor.
