Sir

I did myself the honor yesterday of making my visit of enquiry to your Royal Highness, but as circumstances so seldom permit me, who am so little in London, that of meeting you, I venture to request in this manner that your Royal Highness would do me the honor of naming a day to dine with Lady Bute and me, & I beg your Royal Highness will give me your commands as to any persons you would desire to have invited.

I have the honor to be, Sir Your Royal Highness's most obliged and very faithful humble servant

Sir

Lady Bute & I have again been hesitating whether we ought to intrude upon your Royal Highness, but we trust we may be permitted to offer you our condolence upon the painful loss, which has recently fallen upon you.

I have the honour to be,

Sir

with the finest respect

Your Royal Highness ever obliged and most humble servant

H. R. G.
