

LYSONS family :

171.708.2

- DANIEL, M.D., of Bath; published "Essays on Fever," 1772 d. 1800
- DANIEL, | rev., nephew, topographer; b. about 1760; published "Environs of London" 1792-1811
- With his brother Samuel, edited "Magna Britannia," 1806, et seq. d. 3 Jan. 1834

Wodmanth April 22^d

My Dear Sir

I am going to Bath for a month No 12 Queen Square - When I shall be quite at leisure to push on the conclusion of the Deem as fast as possible - I will thank you to send me down the ^{final} map for correction - & such of the Plates as are finished off - I will be sure to send indeed with the Monthly parcels - in wh. the last months n^o of Botanical Magazine may be sent - I believe I mentioned in my last that I wished the "Lord of the Isles" if it has been published in P^o to be sent to Assembly Assembly will send you the first Volume of Gibbons Thomas P^o in wh. I will thank you to get a short supplement wh. is very much wanted - I wonder the binder had done it up - I have not had all the Reports of Chambers as yet published - but I still hope to have some the Devonshire part (which has been worked off) of the Report now going thro the press & have just written to Mr Boswell on the subject & to Mr Bathurst again with the population Abstract.

I have told Mr Armstrong that he apply to you for the amount of his last bill for 1821 - all 36 £ which I will thank you to pay him. I remain

My Dear Sir

Yours truly

Das Lyons

R. W. D. D. D. D. D.
of S. D. D.

The Cadell by

Strand

Redmarton May 29 1821

My Dear Sir

I have made out a list of the Devonshire parishes with three columns - which will very much facilitate what you are so kind as to undertake for me - & at the same time expedite it; as you shall see can with little trouble & in a short time, as they come in, enter the numbers in my columns where the parishes will be so readily found being placed alphabetically.

When you see D. Drury will you be so good as to give my compliments to him & ask him in what year & of whom the Strighteston estate in Ottery which now belongs to him was purchased? The ^{latest} amount I have of it is that it was in the Howtrays.
Pray give our best compliments to Mrs. Sales & tell that we have just been making another visit ~~to~~ to St. Nicholas Hoare where we have brought home a fresh set of cuttings - If Mrs. Sales will pack up the layers of carnations & pinches which she was so good as to promise us in July, in a middling sized tin case such as they sell for sandwich cases & no doubt may be got in Exeter - I shall be able next year to return it with some cuttings of Geraniums &c. Can you tell me for certain whether Mr Tompler purchased Lindley of his nephew also was Mr Tompler's devisee. If he did not he wd I suppose be only the tenant, — If you can tell me this I wd not ask him.

I remain my dear Sir

Yours very truly

Dart Lyons

Dart Lyons

1771