

The French Committee for 1791 & 1792, 1793

are the rest of the world Chairs

and always suffer - Nath's brother

Polgara

S. Dyer Knott Esq

The Castle

Exeter

F. Polyan

Rolls,
5 Dec. 1866

Sir
I must apologize for having allowed you and the 1st Aug^{ts} to have remained so long without an answer. But it I am sure you was about leaving home for the Venetian, and escaping my memory in my letters The enclosed (I regret to say) is a specimen of my ordinary calligraphy. This is a fragment of a report made to the Lord Chamberlain upon the mode of proceeding in "Petitions of right."

Yours truly,
J. Paley

Sir,
I must be
Yours truly,
J. Paley

Pet. addressed to the King by ~~the~~ Maurice Berkeley, brother and heir of Thomas late the Marquis of Berkeley.

The original but it is asserted that the King had the sign manual at the top in the usual manner, but without any other answer or direction. — The Petitioner sets forth his title to the manor of Fosham (Sussex) due to him upon the death of ~~the~~ the Marquis without issue, & by injunction was found when tried with crown by virtue of a bar proved to the Marquis, & but such ^{fine} as the Pet. Pet. alleges & not to be bar the estate (as created by the first Mr. ^{Crane}) under which he claims —