

Lyme Regis Oct 28th
1887.

Dear Beers,

Mr May duly shewed the letter as requested. We are glad to hear of your safe arrival. I think the ^{or} Randolphs took out Cyrus Davie to the Canterbury settlement. G Woolgrove & George Blake are about to settle there. G Blake's father has spent his money & set off to the continent.

There is nothing new here that strikes me as worthy of notice.

Mrs Roberts accompanied me to the Crystal Palace. Members went for Lyme. They talk of a Railway from Dorchester to Brixport, Axminster & Exeter.

W Drayton has a partner in a son in law W. Hinton who married Miss A Drayton.

I am glad to hear every one speaks well of your late brother in law - You & the wife find the new situation very comfortable - I was for some some circumstances afraid he would not get it. But the having it from the magistrates is very gratifying. He had been ashore for a long time till lately: G. Wadsworth staid ashore a long time. He had his palanquin to spend on dip into. I fear his brother has spent all.

If you come into the country we shall be glad to see you. My school flourish - Mrs Roberts writes in kind regards. I am Dear Beene
Yours faithfully

The reign of Queen Eliza beth was not so happy as we are apt to imagine. More upon this subject another time.
