Dear Sir,

I Desir'd M^r Blunt to call on you for the two pictures of Dead Game. but since then, indeed this morning, I have received a letter from M^r Young to inform me that Lord Capellis of Privy Gardens wishes to become the purchaser of the portraits will therefore thank you to put that picture in the box, and send it to his Lordship. The price is £50 which he has agreed to pay. M^r B^{lunt} will bring me the other in his gig. when his Lordship has the picture, M^r Young wishes to have a line to that effect, that he may enter it in the Jole Book of the Gallery, oblige me by writing one to him, and you will add another obligation

Y^r Obedt Serv^t J^r Bristow

P.S. whatever expenses are incurred shall be punctually
