Burnet, John, F.R.S. (b. 1784, d. 1868), painter and engraver. It is in the latter capacity he is chiefly known, and most of the engravings of Wilkie's pictures are by him. His most successful painting was Greenwich Hospital and Naval Heroes, a companion to Wilkie's Chelsea Pensioners.

My dear Sir,

As my daughter is at home with me, she is anxious that Chauncy take her to Mount Gordon, if you will therefore oblige me with two orders for two for my thing but London Assurance.
You will induce me to gratify her wish

Yours very truly

W. B. B. B.

Victoria Road

30th May 1845

My dear Sir,

Many thanks for your kind present, which I must say is far beyond what I could expect for any little advice respecting the finishing of your plate which I must say you have worked out so as to make it a very perfect work, and I trust the sale will be such as to remunerate you for the time necessary to complete

2 Whitehead Grove
Monday Morning

My dear Sir

Will you oblige me with orders for four to see the new tragedy of Massada my Son this week. and send them in a note to N^o 3 Duckers Street Portland Place. At Copland Hutchison Esq. with respects to your father and brother

I remain

Yours very truly
