My Dear Sir

Upon a mature consideration of the subject which you suggested for my opinion upon it, the other day, I do not

My dear Sir

Could I have known early yesterday that you would have found it difficult to put my two friends into the Musa this evening I should have had time to apprise them of the circumstances, as it is A or B is impossible In I should have to send a distance of twelve miles, that is as far as Pinner on the other side of Harrow, which if it were even practicable would be of no avail as Dr Kelly makes a day of it in London and consequently leaves for Towns very early = I must entreat to help me out of the dilemma and get them in somehow or I have but one alternative namely paying for places = Send me a line if you can by return

Dear Sir

Yours very truly
